

COOKING ON A BUDGET SERIES

with New York Kitchen

SUNY Empire will be hosting NY Kitchen in our virtual University space this fall for a 3-part Cooking on a Budget Series! At each class, attendees will cook live alongside the expert chefs as they demo and explain each recipe. The series will include recipe themes such as cooking with pantry staples, cooking in season, and cooking for the holidays. Ingredients will be provided, as needed, and families are welcome to join!
